

TELEGRAPHIC

Following the "strike" amongst the telegraph operators at different points North of Richmond and South of it, we are deprived of our night messages. It is hoped the matter will be settled to-day, as the company must necessarily yield to the demands of the operators.

Foreign News.
PARIS, January 4.—The Emperor's speech and the successful formation of the ministry, has favorably affected finances.

Domestic News.
CHAMBERLAIN, January 4.—Arrived—scholarship holder, New Orleans; steam yacht Anna, New York, for Nassau. Sailed—steamer James Adger, New York.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, January 4.—The organization of the House is generally considered a Democratic triumph.

NEW YORK, January 4.—Oakey, the defaulting cashier of the Merchants' Exchange Bank, confesses his crimes.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—It is understood that the climax of the telegraphers' strike will be reached at 3 o'clock to-day. The association under whose auspices the strike threatens, numbers 3,800.

A few nights since, at Barlow's store, near Gainesville, Wilson County, Tenn., Sam Harris was shot and killed by a man named Thomas Mount. The ball took effect in the head, and the death of the former was immediate. Mount, the man who did the killing, was under the influence of liquor, and committed the murder without the least provocation. He made his escape, and had not been captured at last accounts.

A wealthy citizen of Lockport, N. Y., who had a presentation that his first railroad journey would cause his death, chartered a hack last week to take him, his wife and child to Syracuse, and during a severe snow storm the vehicle was overturned while entering Auburn by contact with the embankment of the Southern Central Railroad, tumbling the passengers into the snow, and apparently giving confirmation to his railroad theory.

At a recent horse-race, near Hinkleville, Ballard County, Ky., the rider of one of the horses and the horse both were killed. Mr. Faulkner, the rider, attempted to avoid a mud hole in the track, and, in making a circuit around it, he ran his horse against a mule hitched near the track, throwing the horse a somersault, killing Mr. Faulkner and breaking the horse's neck. The accident was the result of carelessness riding.

There is something in the wind at the navy yards. Private orders were sent from Washington on Wednesday, to all the navy yards, directing that the work of fitting out vessels of war for sea be vigorously prosecuted. The monitor Miantonomah has been ordered to depart at once, and her destination is rumored to be Samana, or New Dominican acquisition.

Strong Testimony.—As far back as 1859, Cornelius Wendell, who bribed United States Senators enough to save Andrew Johnson from impeachment, was a noted Congressional lobbyist. We know for certain that, in 1859, he substantially declared as follows: "I can easily secure the votes of many Northern Congressmen, for money; but I have never yet been able to buy a Southern man."

Circulars in Newspapers.—Copies of newspapers enclosing printed circulars have been passing through the post office for some time past. The publishers have requested the Post Office Department to decide what rate of postage should be paid on them, and the decision has been rendered that both the paper and the circular are chargeable, under the law, with letter postage.

A Snow Storm.—Yesterday fell the heaviest snow that has been known in Charleston for fifteen years. It commenced at about 12 o'clock and ceased about 4. In many places in the upper wards the snow covered the ground to the depth of an inch. A snow storm is an occurrence to be remembered in our city.—Charleston Courier, 4th.

Mr. Benjamin Baker, of Key West, Florida, has sold his crop of pine-apples this year for nearly $7,000. The crop was gathered from less than an acre and a half of ground. He has 150,000 plants which will be in bearing next year, and these cover less than seven acres of ground, and if sold at the same rate as this year's, will net him $60,000.

This year will witness the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the establishment of the bank of Messrs. H. Kistner & Co., at Leipzig. The house was founded in 1670, and has ever since remained in the hands of the family, an event almost unprecedented in the history of modern banking.

A merchant in Lewiston, Me., was in the habit of removing the nut from one of his buggy wheels at night, in order to give the thieves a smash-up in case his vehicle should be stolen. One morning recently he forgot to replace the nut, and in company with a friend, he went for a drive. A general smash-up was the result. He leaves the nut on the wheel now.

The Presbyterian Church at Strawberry Plains, East Tenn., was destroyed by fire on Christmas morning, supposed to have caught from a stove-pipe. The church was an elegant edifice, built since the war, at a cost of $3,500. There was a new church, the best in the county, destroyed of the same site, by the Federal army in 1864.

On Tuesday night, the savings bank at Rockville, Md., was robbed by burglars, who were seen to enter the house and get the money. They stole $100 in bonds and $150 in cash. The Harris County Schoolhouse, at Rockville, was robbed yesterday morning.

An in Newton, Iowa, going along the manual of arms, a loaded gun was discharged, and the bullet struck a child of Mrs. Annis. The child was almost heart-broken.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

CINCINNATI MARKET.—Rumors by Morris & Reid, Produce and Provision Brokers, Room No. 9, Pike's Building—CINCINNATI, December 29, 1899.—Our market during the week has been flat, and prices of all articles thoroughly unsettled. Early in the week prices declined largely, and at one time a panic seemed imminent. Hogs of 800 lbs. average sold down to 9.50, and but few buyers at this figure; but receipts having fallen off materially at all the leading points, produced a firmer feeling, and to-day market closes firm at 9.50@10.50 gross for light to extra heavy averages; receipts to-day 2,547. The market to-day for provisions is firmer, with considerable speculative and order demand for lard and mess pork—during past few days mess pork sold as low as 27.50; to-day sales at 29.00. Lard at same time reached 16.50, and sales to-day at 18 for city kettle; lard—prime city, 12@12.50; Gold 19.50; 62's, ex-coupon, 13.15; Tennessee's, ex-coupon, 53; new, 48.15; Virginia's, ex-coupon, 48; new, 54; Louisiana's, old, 69; new, 65; levee 65's 64.50; 8's 79; Alabama's 8's not quoted; 5's 63; Georgia's 8's 79; 9's 90; North Carolina's, old, 41.50; new, 29; South Carolina's, new, 74, ex-dividend. Flour dull and drooping. Wheat dull and a shade easier. Corn dull and nominally lower. Pork heavy—mess 28.75@29.00. Lard dull, at 17.50. Cotton very firm, at 25.50. Freight quiet.

CHARLESTON, January 4.—Cotton in good demand; sales 500 bales—middling 24.25@24.50; receipts 632; exports 1,745. SAVANNAH, January 4.—Cotton receipts 2,141 bales; exports 1,169; sales 450 bales—middling 24.15; market firm. LONDON, January 4.—Noon.—Consols 92.50. Bonds 87.75.

PARIS, January 4.—The Bourse is firm—rentes 74. HAVRE, January 4.—Cotton opened firm, both on spot and ahead.

LYVERPOOL, January 4.—3 P. M.—Cotton firm—uplands 11.50; Orleans 11.75. Yarns and fabrics at Manchester firm.

A series of sad events happened on the steamer Ozark on her last trip down the Mississippi. An old citizen of Arkansas, who had been on board for some time, was found dead in his cabin. Two colored men fell overboard while swimming, and were drowned, and a deck hand was blown to atoms by the explosion of some torpedoes he was handling.

To a toast of "The babies! God bless them!" a railroad conductor responded: "May their route through life be pleasant and profitable, their ties well laid, their track straight forward and not backward. May their fathers be safe conductors, their mothers faithful tenders, and their switch never misplaced."

"Husband, I wish you would buy me some pretty feathers." "Indeed, my dear little wife, you look better without them."

"Oh, no," said she, coaxingly; "you always call me your little bird, and how does a bird look without feathers?"

A large number of merchants and property-holders residing in Victoria, Nanaimo, and other places in British America Territory, have sent a memorial to President Grant, in favor of a transfer of British Columbia to the United States.

Gray, the Wall street rascal who recently absconded with a good deal of other people's money, neither drank whiskey nor smoked cigars. Let us take warning from his case—but let us take it in moderation.

The Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph states that an effort will be made at the Ecumenical Council to issue a decree prohibiting any music but plain chant in the services of that church. The Telegraph opposes any change.
